GAZETTE OF INDIA.

NOTICE.

The 22nd March 1911.

From the 8th April next till further notice, Parts I, IV, V and VI of the Gazette of India and the Weather and Crop Report will be published at Simla. After the 1st April all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,
Secretary to the Government of India.

ARMY CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

NOTICE TO TENDERERS.

Sealed Tenders are invited for the supply during the period of five years beginning 1st April 1912 and ending 31st March 1917, and also during the period of the ten years beginning 1st April 1912 and ending 31st March 1922, of British Army boots and shoes, magazine boots and shoes, gymnasium shoes, canvas ropesoled shoes, leather slippers for Hospitals and leather gaiters for the use of Troops in British India, in accordance with the schedule and specifications to be seen at the Office of the Director of Army Clothing, India, at Alipore, Calcutta, on any week day between the hours of 11 A.M. and 3 P.M., separate tenders for each of the two periods may be furnished.

2. Tenders must be delivered at the Office of the Director of Army Clothing, India, before 12 o'clock noon on 18th September 1911 at which time they will be opened.

3. Tenders must be sent in a strong cover, securely fastened, sealed with a distinctive device, and conspicuously marked " Tender for foot gear—British Troops " and addressed to the Director of Army Clothing, India, and not to any Officer by name.

When made by a firm they must be signed by each individual member of the firm, or, in his name, by his constituted Attorney under Power of Attorney for the purpose, annexed to the Tender, and the address of each signatory must be appended to his signature.

4. Forms of tender, Schedule, and Specifications may be had on application, in writing, to the Director of Army Clothing, India, on and after the 25th July 1911 on payment of rupee one per set of forms.

4-A. Standard patterns of boots, shoes, etc., may be seen at the Office of the Government Inspector of Army Boots, Cawnpore, or may be had on loan on application to that Officer.

5. Tenders from bonâ fide manufacturers having Factories in India only (and no others) will be considered.

6. Any manufacturer or firm of manufacturers tendering may do so for all or any of the classes detailed in the schedule, and shall tender both for the whole quantity stated in the schedule of any class or classes selected and for three-fourths, one-half and one-quarter of such quantity, and a tender may be accepted for any one or more of the class or classes of article or articles or for any specified portion or portions as aforesaid for which it is made without the other or others.

7. Delivery of the goods, a tender for which is accepted, will be taken, and examination made at the Government Boot Depôt, Cawnpore, or at Bombay or Madras, whichever place may be nearest to Contractor's Factory, such place to be determined in case of doubt or dispute by the Director of Army Clothing, India, whose decision thereof shall be final.

8. The acceptance, or rejection, of tenders rests solely with the Government of India who reserve to themselves the right of rejecting any tender or any items in a tender without cause assigned. The lowest tender will not of necessity be accepted.

9. Each Tenderer must deposit in Presidency Bank or Treasury Receipt or Government Promissory Notes as Earnest money a sum representing 2 per cent. of the total value of the maximum quantities of the articles tendered as entered in the Schedule of requirements which sum shall be forfeited to the Secretary of State on withdrawal or attempted withdrawal of any tender before the same shall have been accepted or rejected or on failure on the part of the tenderer to make such deposit in accordance with the conditions of Contract of the Security thereby required.

THE HON'BLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, the 31st July 1911.

No. 42.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Sections 5 and 13 of the Opium Act, 1878 (I of 1878), as applied to the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, and with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, the Resident in Mysore is pleased to make the following rules in supersession of the rules contained in Residency notification No. 983, dated the 27th February 1900.

PRELIMINARY.

I. These rules shall come into force on, and with effect from, the 1st day of September 1911.

II. In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context :—

'The Resident' means the Resident in Mysore ;

'The Collector' means the Collector of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore ;

'Farmer' means a person who has obtained a farm from the Collector under Rule XIII ;

'Licensed Vendor' means a person who has obtained a license for sale by retail under Rule X or XIV ;

'Pharmacist' means a person to whom a special license has been granted under Rule V ;

'Opium' does not include poppy heads, preparations or admixtures of opium and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy ;

'Poppy heads' means the heads or capsules of the poppy plant which have been lanced and dried or from which the juice has been extracted ;

Sale 'by retail' means the sale in a single transaction of opium and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy in any quantity not exceeding three tolas in weight, of preparations and admixtures of opium, other than morphia and its preparations and those used for smoking, in any quantity not containing more than three tolas of crude opium, and of morphia and its preparations in any quantity not exceeding ten grains in weight ;

'Tola' means a weight of one hundred and eighty grains Troy ; and 'Seer' means a weight of eighty tolas.

MANUFACTURE.

III (i) Preparations of admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, may be manufactured :—

(a) On account of the Government ;

(b) By a farmer or licensed vendor for wholesale or retail sale in accordance with these rules and with the conditions of his farm or license ;

(c) By a Pharmacist, duly licensed, or by any person for his own domestic use provided that such manufacture is in quantities not exceeding those in which the possession of the said articles is permitted by these rules, and is from opium of which the possession is similarly permitted.

(ii) Preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking may be manufactured by any person for his own domestic use, but not for sale, in any quantity not exceeding one tola in weight from opium of which he is permitted by these rules to be in possession.

POSSESSION.

IV (i) Any person may possess —

(a) Opium and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy in any quantity no exceeding three tolas in weight, preparations or admixtures of opium, other than morphia and its preparations and those used for smoking, in any quantity not containing more than three tolas of crude opium and morphia and its preparations in any quantity not exceeding ten grains in weight :

Provided that the said articles have been purchased from a farmer, licensed vendor or licensed pharmacist, or have been manufactured from opium so purchased ;

Provided also that the Collector may specially authorize the possession by any person of any or all of the said articles in any quantity not exceeding one quarter seer in weight ;

(b) Preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking to the extent of one tola, provided that such preparations have been manufactured by the possessor for private consumption and not for sale under the conditions of Rule III (ii) above.

(ii) Subject to the conditions of his farm or license, a farmer or licensed vendor may possess opium, preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, in any quantity; and a pharmacist may possess them in any quantity not exceeding one quarter seer of opium and one quarter seer of preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy at one time.

Provided that the said articles have been purchased from the Government or from a farmer, licensed vendor or pharmacist as prescribed in the possessor's farm or license or otherwise in these rules, or have been manufactured from opium so purchased:

Provided also that the Collector may, in any special case, authorize the possession by a pharmacist of any or all of the said articles in any quantity.

V. The Collector may grant to any pharmacist a special license, in such form as may be prescribed by the Resident, for the possession in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding rule and sale by retail, for medical purposes only, of opium, preparations or admixtures of opium, or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking.

Provided that a pharmacist may, without any license, possess or sell recognised medical preparations containing opium.

TRANSPORT.

VI. Any person may transport opium and preparations or admixtures of opium and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, of which he is lawfully in possession, from a place where he has purchased any or all of the said articles or manufactured the preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, to a place where he is licensed to manufacture or sell the said articles or where he may lawfully consume them.

IMPORT.

VII. (i) The import of opium on account of the Government shall be permitted on the condition that the opium is covered by a pass granted by the Collector.

(ii) A pharmacist may, with the special permission of the Collector and subject to such conditions as the Collector may prescribe, import such preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy (other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking), as are not locally procurable, to the extent of the quantities of the said articles of which he is permitted by these rules to be in possession.

SALE.

VIII. Opium, preparations or admixtures of opium, and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking may be sold by retail to any person legally authorized to possess the same by a person holding a license in that behalf; and may also be sold for medical purposes only, by a pharmacist holding a license granted to him under Rule V, to the extent and subject to the conditions specified in such license.

IX. (i) Opium in quantities of not less than one-fourth seer shall, on prepayment at such rates as the Resident may prescribe by notification in the official gazette, be supplied by the Collector to any farmer, licensed vendor or pharmacist.

(ii) No opium shall be sold by wholesale or retail which has not been bought from the Collector or from a licensed vendor.

(iii) No opium, or preparation or admixture of opium, or intoxicating drug prepared from the poppy shall be sold wholesale, except under special order from the Collector, or as next hereinafter provided.

(iv) A licensed vendor or farmer may sell any quantity of opium, or preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, which he is authorized under the conditions of his license or farm to deal in, to another licensed vendor or farmer; and a quantity not exceeding one-fourth seer of each of the said articles or one half seer of them in the aggregate to a pharmacist.

(v) A pharmacist may sell to another pharmacist a quantity not exceeding one quarter seer of preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking.

X (i) Licenses for the sale by retail of opium, or preparations or admixtures of opium, or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, may be granted by the Collector.

(ii) Such limited number of shops for the retail vend of opium or preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy as aforesaid, as the Resident may from time to time decide, shall be allowed, and the monopoly of retail vend at such shops shall be sold for such fee as the Resident may fix, or it may be put up to auction at the commencement of each official year. The shops shall be disposed of singly or in groups, as the Resident may direct.

XI. Licenses for the sale by retail of opium, or preparations or admixtures of opium, or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Resident.

XII. Licenses for the sale by retail of opium, or preparations or admixtures of opium, or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, shall be granted for one year only, unless the Resident otherwise specifically directs.

XIII. (i) With the sanction of the Resident, and subject to such conditions (if any) as may be imposed as hereinafter provided, the Collector may farm the duties leviable on the sale by retail of opium, or preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, for a term not exceeding five years.

(ii) The Resident may prescribe conditions :—

(a) for the invitation and acceptance of tenders for the farm of such duties ;

(b) as to the forms and conditions of the farms ; and

(c) for the requisition of security for the due fulfilment of the engagements entered into by the farmers.

(iii) Any breach of the conditions of a farm granted under this rule shall, over and above any other penalty, subject the farm to annulment by the authority by whom it was granted.

XIV. When duties are farmed under the last foregoing rule, the farmer may issue, within the limits of his farm, licenses for the sale by retail of opium, or preparations or admixtures of opium, or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking. Such licenses shall be countersigned by the Collector and shall then have the force of licenses issued by the Collector under Rule X and shall contain such of the conditions of the said licenses as the Collector may prescribe, and may be cancelled at the discretion of the Collector for the breach of any of these conditions.

XV. Before entering into engagement for the farm of such duties, the Collector may make such reservations or restrictions with respect to the grant of licenses by the farmer as he thinks fit.

XVI. Every farmer shall file in the Collector's office, in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Collector, a list of all licenses granted by him.

XVII. With the sanction of the Resident, the Collector may cancel any farm granted under Rule XIII, or may within the period of such farm impose any new reservation or restriction on the farmer.

XVIII. If a farm is cancelled for any cause other than a breach of the conditionss imposed under Rule XIII upon the farmer, or if any reservation or restriction in respect of the grant of licenses is imposed under the last foregoing rule during the term of the farm, the Resident may award to the farmer compensation for any loss thereby caused to him.

XIX. If any license vendor or farmer, on the expiry of his license or farm, has in his possession any opium or preparations or admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking which he is authorised under the conditions of his license or farm to sell, but is unable to dispose of to the satisfaction of the Collector by private sale to other licensed vendors or farmers, he shall surrender the same to the Collector ; and the incoming licensed vendor or farmer, or, if the expired license or farm is not renewed, any licensed vendor or farmer within the station shall, when required by the Collector, be bound to purchase the articles aforesaid to the extent of two months' supply, at such price and in such quantities as the Collector shall adjudge :

Provided that the price thus adjudged shall in no case exceed the rate at which opium can be procured from the Government.

Provided also that, if such articles are declared by the Residency Surgeon to be unfit for use, the Collector shall cause the same to be destroyed.

GENERAL.

XX. Except where otherwise specially provided in the foregoing rules, the possession, transport, import, or sale of opium, and preparations and admixtures of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking, by or on behalf of the Government shall be unrestricted.

DISPOSAL OF THINGS CONFISCATED.

XXI. Opium, or any preparation or admixture of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy confiscated under the Opium Act, 1878, shall be examined by the Residency Surgeon, and, if declared by him to be fit for use, shall be sent to the Resident's Treasury, and be disposed of as the Collector may direct. If declared to be unfit for use, it shall be immediately destroyed.

XXII. All property, other than opium, or any preparation or admixture of opium or intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy, which is confiscated under the Opium Act, 1878, shall be sold under the orders of the Magistrate or other officer by whom the confiscation was adjudged.

REWARDS.

XXIII. Any Magistrate convicting an offender under Section 9 or any Magistrate or other authorized officer ordering the confiscation of opium, or any preparation or admixture of opium or intoxicating drug prepared from the poppy, under Section 12 of the Opium Act, 1878, may grant a reward, not exceeding the value of the article or articles confiscated in addition to the amount of any fine realized, in such proportions as he may think fit to any person or persons who have contributed to the seizure of the article or articles or the conviction of the offender.

XXIV. If in any case the fine or forfeiture is not realized the Collector may sanction such reasonable reward, not exceeding the amount of the fine and forfeiture, as may seem appropriate. The Resident may also by general order declare what class of Excise Officers shall receive rewards, and what classes shall have no title to share therein.

XXV. The powers referred to in the third paragraph of Section 12, Section 19 and Section 24, respectively, of the Opium Act, 1878, may be exercised by the Collector.

After the 1st April all notifications and other matter intended for publication in those Parts should be addressed to the Officiating Publisher at Simla.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette, and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,
Secretary to the Government of India.
